NCFCU Host Visitors

apiBIS Program in full swing!

Are you thinking of starting a small business? apiBIS is a business assistance program which focuses on the specific language, cultural, and technical needs of Asian and Pacific Islander ethnic owned small businesses. Our business development specialists are available to help you work through every step of the process. We offer free counseling, classes and seminars in English and Cantonese. Be a part of these upcoming workshops and start making your goals a reality.
